SECTION – 6

FOR ANY MISTAKE:

a) If a candidate forgets to select all the courses she wants to apply or if she wants to change the order of preference of courses she has applied then she should submit a fresh online application selecting all the courses(s) with her right choice of order of preference and submit the printed copy of fresh application not the wrong one. If she already submitted the printed copy, then she should submit the fresh copy or copies of Application Form with a plain paper application for cancelling the previous application. All should be done within the stipulated Time of Submission.

b) If any Candidate by mistake submit online application in different time (different application No.) for different courses in different time authority will consider only one application as desired by the authority. Please remember all the applications of a candidate should have same Application No. a single challan and a single Acknowledgement Slip.

c) For any other mistake please write a plain paper application for correction of mistake.

Minor mistake can also be changed in the Draft Merit List using Format I within stipulated time.

d) No correction shall be allowed for change of order of preference and no. of courses after last date of online submission.