

Merit list and Selection Procedure for 4 Yr. B.Sc (Hons. &Hons. With research)

Merit list of Food & Nutrition:

Merit list will be prepared on the basis of percentage of marks obtained in best of four Subjects + Chemistry at (10+2) Level of Examination. (Marks obtained in ENVS will not be considered as one of the best four subjects)

In case of tie marks obtained in Chemistry will be considered.

Example:

Percentage calculation for Food & Nutrition Hons. Course:

Let a candidate have marks in 6 subjects as follows:

Bengali-78, English-74, Environmental Science -85, Nutrition-80, Chemistry-83, Home Science-88

So best of four + Chemistry subjects are: Home Science-88, Bengali -78, Chemistry -83, Nutrition -80, Chemistry -83

Hence percentage of best of four = $(88+78+83+80+83)/5 = 82.4 \%$

Merit list of Human Development:

Merit list will be prepared on the basis of Percentage of marks obtained in best of four Subjects at 10+2 Level of Examination. (Marks obtained in ENVS will not be considered as one of the best four subjects)

But preference will be given to the candidates having Home Management and related subject at (10+2) level.

Example:

Percentage calculation for Human Development Honours Course:

Let a candidate have marks in 6 subject as follows:

Bengali-78, English-74, Environmental Science -85, Pol. Science-80, History-65, HomeScience-88

So best of four subjects: HomeScience-88, English-74, Pol. Science-80 and Bengali-78

Hence percentage of best of four= $(88+74+80+78) /4 = 80\%$
